2.	INNOVATIVE CHARACTER AND IMPROVEMENT OF NATIONAL VET SYSTEMS THROUGH TRANSFER OF INNOVATION	15	00. No evidence	10 points
The proposal seeks to find solutions to clearly identified needs of the target groups identified, by offering innovative solutions as regards training and competence development. These solutions will result from adapting and transferring innovative approaches which already exist in other countries or sectors of the economy. Points to be addressed in the assessment (non-exhaustive list): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Clear and convincing description of how the proposal offers something new to targeted beneficiaries (learners / user-groups and / or their educators and / or decision-makers) in terms of learning opportunities, skills development, access to information, etc., by adapting and/or transferring new processes or products, good practices, new ways of delivering existing learning opportunities to new target groups, sectors or geographical areas. As the proposal is based upon innovative content or previous project results, it represents a significant innovative added value towards a new target group, economic sector or a new geographic area and will contribute to improving the quality of vocational training and education and/ or the VET system in the country/ies of implementation. ➤ The proposal should contribute to the national VET system. Please note: if the National Agency has published a/ national priority/ies and if the proposal addresses it/one of/them do note rate it/them here. Follow the instructions of the National Agency. ➤ Are the innovative aspects of the content and products to be transferred evident and relevant for the targeted beneficiaries? ➤ The quality of the products being transferred is established and can be clearly identified such as through evidence of successful implementation and sustainability ➤ If the initial developer of the chosen content and product(s) is not part of the current partnership, is there a clear description of the relationship that the consortium partners will establish with the initial developer (intellectual property rights etc.)

4.	EUROPEAN ADDED VALUE	10	00. No evidence	7 points
The benefits and need for European cooperation are clearly demonstrated. Points to be addressed in the assessment (non-exhaustive list): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ The proposal should demonstrate why this work should be undertaken within a trans-national partnership rather than on a national basis. ➤ The proposal should explain how the European cooperation will add value to the activities of the consortium. In other words, the proposal should demonstrate which benefits (trans-national, interdisciplinary, trans-sectoral) it brings to the consortium partners to work together – also in the long run, after Leonardo funding. ➤ The Leonardo programme encourages development of products that can be further adapted/customised so that they can be used in wider European contexts (different countries, target groups, sectors). The proposal will effectively exploit products and add value to another context. ➤ Linguistic and cultural aspects to ensure successful transfer and a maximum exploitation are addressed appropriately.

7.	IMPACT	15	00. No evidence	10 points
The impact on vocational education and training approaches and systems is likely to be significant. Points to be addressed in the assessment (non-exhaustive list): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ The project results adequately address actual needs of partners, of specific sectors/areas of training provision, of target groups, i.e. the beneficiaries are clearly identified. ➤ The proposal includes "product" or result testing with experts and direct target groups. ➤ The proposal involves relevant stakeholders. ➤ The proposal demonstrates a clear and concrete contribution – in terms of its impact on the target beneficiaries – to achieve the objectives of the Leonardo da Vinci programme, of the Lifelong Learning Programme and of relevant Community policies referred to in the Call. ➤ The foreseeable impact of the project on the target groups is significant. There are clear and concrete indicators for impact on the target group/s and/or sector/s; a clear explanation is provided of the basis on which these indicators have been established. ➤ The proposal explains which project activities and results are supposed to be continued respectively maintained or further developed after the end of the EU funding and how and with which resources other than from the EU this will be done (i.e. continuation of new courses, up-dating of new tools...).
